When verification is done in this format the execution of the matter before a notary public is not required. (See, K.S.A. 53-601)

Note: Only annual accountings and related fee requests will be considered at the time of an "accounting docket." Do not provide an order for hearing – a standing order is in place relating to annual accountings only. The petitioner does have the responsibility of assuring that notice is given to all those entitled to notice pursuant to applicable statute. When no petition is filed the Court will consider the accounting and take action pursuant to K.S.A. 59-3085 including entering an order either accepting or refusing to accept the offered accounting.
